HAYMANS MARKET, ST PETER

Just ten minutes from Sugar Cane Club Hotel & Spa, Haymans Market invites guests to step into a vibrant new chapter of Barbadian history. Once home to the Haymans Plantation, established in 1649 by English planter Henry Haymans, this site was once a thriving sugar factory where golden crystals were produced from the island's cane fields. After closing in 1988, the factory stood silent—until its remarkable rebirth in 2020.

Today, the reimagined Haymans Market blends heritage and innovation, featuring over 50 unique shops, cafés, bars, and artisan stalls. Visitors can explore colourful murals by local artists, join a self-guided tour to uncover the story of Barbados' sugar industry, or relax at Fresh Nest Spa and Soulful Wellness Studio for a touch of island rejuvenation.

Families will love the Bambini Learning Center, while fitness enthusiasts can visit Sunnd x Pilates Place or look forward to the soon-to-open gym with inspiring views. Every Sunday, the 3rd Space hosts live music and art, celebrating community and creativity.

From local crafts and fresh cuisine to soulful experiences and historic charm, Haymans Market offers an unforgettable cultural escape—just a short, scenic drive from the Sugar Cane Club.
